1. PURPOSE

The purpose of this regulation is to set forth the responsibilities of the Native American Working Group (NAWG) and to identify the methods by which the NAWG will operate.

2. SPECIAL INSTRUCTIONS

This regulation supersedes Department Regulation No. 1020-005.

3. POLICY

It is the policy of the United States Department of Agriculture (USDA) to improve opportunities for all rural Americans by providing for effective and efficient coordination of Federal agricultural and rural development including programs within each of the individual states, territories and Native American tribes and nations.

4. DEFINITION

"Native American" means a member of any American Indian tribe, band, group, or nation, including Alaska Indians, Aleuts, Eskimos, and Alaska Native villages of the United States.

5. BACKGROUND

The Secretary established the NAWG on January 15, 1983, under the Office of Intergovernmental Affairs, Office of Public Affairs, through the establishment of Departmental Regulation (DR) 1312-1, which contained the NAWG’s responsibility and make-up.

DR 1312-1, was revised on January 10, 1992, by DR 1020-005, which established the meeting and reporting requirements. The Office of Native American Programs is the lead and has responsibilities to coordinate Departmental activities for Native Americans and Alaska Natives.

6. RESPONSIBILITIES

The NAWG shall provide such advice, support and other assistance to the Director of the Office of Native American Programs (Director) as may be required to ensure effective coordination and guidance among agencies for all USDA policies and programs regarding tribal relations. The NAWG may recommend to the Secretary through the Director, practices and methods for coordinating USDA activities of interest to Indian tribes.
